

SYMPOSIUM

Invitation to the 51st R³Nordic Symposium & exhibition naantali Spa, Finland, May 25-27, 2021

PROGRAMME

The Symposium Program Committee had to postpone the R³ Symposium with short notice in mid-March. This information was included in the spring issue of Renhetsteknik. Now, we invite You to the event in spring 2021. The new dates are May 26-27, 2021. The place is the same i.e. Naantali Spa in Naantali. You find Naantali on the map close to Turku.

In case You or Your company have new actual topics you would like to have on the agenda in the upcoming Symposium, we ask you to provide us with the topic, name of the speaker and a short abstract on 200-300 words at latest on Monday 16th of November 2020. Please, send the information asked above to the chairperson Leila Kakko at leila.kakko(at)tuni.fi.

The programme will cover the use and applications of cleanroom technology and contamination control within the pharmaceutical, food and biotech industries and hospitals as well as general knowledge and news in cleanroom technology. The social programme is also under preparation.

We will publish the updated programme and all short abstracts approved in the next issue of Renhetsteknik (RT4:20). Already approved speakers can if they want update their short abstracts. These possible updates should be sent in to Leila Kakko at latest on 16th of November 2020.

PARTICIPATION

For registration to the 51st R³Nordic Symposium, please, use the Registration Form, which you find in RT 4:20 or visit the homepage www.r3nordic.org/symposium-2021 (from January 2021). Both the social programmes will be arranged and accommodation available at Naantali Spa.
